What others say about Rowland Publishing

"Rowland Publishing is a company filled with talent and professionalism. Their reputation as a leader in the publication industry is definitely reflected through their high quality of work and commitment to each project."

– Nancy Stanley, Marketing & Communications Manager, Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa

"Sandestin is proud to partner with Rowland Publishing, led by Brian Rowland, on this year's book [in-room annual magazine]. To say the least, our publishing partners have infused this issue with expertise, creativity, passion and endless energy, and we thank them for an inspired collaboration."

– Zandra Wolfgram, Director of Marketing and Public Relations, Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort

"I tried about five different advertising techniques for a couple of years, with little or no comments from people I would run into. But, no kidding, I am getting comments ALL the time about how we are everywhere! Here's the best part - We only advertise in Tallahassee Magazine, but I am getting public “credit” for advertising everywhere."

– Patti E. Ketcham, CRS, Ketcham Realty Group Inc.

"Five years ago the Foundation made a six-page per issue commitment to begin a specific fundraising dialogue with its constituency. ... most importantly, it generates a definable return on investment. Just last month, TMH could directly attribute a $50,000 donation to Tallahassee Magazine coverage."

– Paula S. Fortunas, President/CEO, Tallahassee Memorial HeathCare Foundation

"We believe our clientele to be the best of the best and find Tallahassee Magazine and Emerald Coast to be the perfect medium to reach them. Over the last three years that I have been in Tallahassee, we have experienced tremendous success and growth. I believe this is directly related to Rowland Publishing, and I look forward to many years of accomplishments to come."

– Crawford Atkins, Vice President & General Manager, Capital Eurocars

"For the past four years, I have consistently placed anywhere from a half page to four pages in every issue. Why? Because it works and my patients tell me so. Advertising in Tallahassee Magazine is one of the most effective ways my office generates new business. I estimate 60 to 70 percent of my new clients come as a direct result of my advertising in Tallahassee Magazine."

– Ronald G. Willis, DMD, Centre Pointe Dental Group
